MBA-IB SPEAKER SERIES

Speaker

Mr. Keita Shiotani

Director, Tri-Bros Group Limited
Former founding partner, Turiya Capital

Keita Shiotani has been involved in investment businesses more than 15 years in an international environment after he took all his fulltime education in Japan. He holds Bachelor of Economics from the University of Tokyo (2002).

He started his career in Goldman Sachs Tokyo in 2002. As a member of Asian Special Situations Group, he was involved in Goldman's proprietary investments in distressed assets including non-performing loans and golf courses.

He moved to Hong Kong in 2007 to join Gandhara Capital which was a hedge fund investing in public equities. In 2010, he co-founded Turiya Capital as a partner which is also a hedge fund investing in public equities. In Turiya, he was engaged in research and decision of the investment projects until he left the firm in January 2017. After a year of rest with his kids, he is now seeking for the opportunity of starting his own investment management business.
